

Team

Dr. Caitlin Pentifallo Gadd, PhD.

- PhD in the sociology of sport, University of British Columbia
- Contractor, Sport Canada
- Post-Doctoral Research Fellow, Centre for Sport and Sustainability
- Founder and CEO of Bingo Impact Management
- Credentialed Evaluator, Canadian Evaluation Society
- Research interests: social impact assessment, sport and inclusion
- NCAA Field Hockey and Water Polo

Ashley Board

- Founder of Board Productions, creative multi-media company
- BA, Exercise and Sport Science
- Experienced in working with non-profit organizations and in the provincial sport system
- NCAA Volleyball and former coach

Jenn Bruce

- Manager of Research, Canadian Paralympic Committee
- Graduate Diploma in social innovation from Saint Paul University in Ottawa
- PhD student in interdisciplinary research in contemporary social issues
- University Field Hockey

Frankie

- ORCanada Director of Naps
- Level 1 Obedience School Graduate

Portia Gadd

- Registered Social Worker, Dalhousie University
- Experienced in working with marginalized youth, homeless populations, and Indigenous communities and organizations
- University rowing team

Katherine Schlosser, MPA

- Senior Policy Analyst, Sport Canada
- Master of Public Administration, Dalhousie University
- BA in Parks, Recreation, Leisure and Fitness Studies, University of Victoria
- Sport administration experience at club, provincial and federal levels
- National level Canoe/Kayak
- University Rugby

Dr. Nicolien vanLuijk, PhD.

- PhD in the sociology of sport, University of British Columbia
- Post-Doctoral Research Fellow, University of Ottawa
- Research interests: sport for development, sport in Indigenous communities, rural, remote, and Arctic communities